SACEM Luxembourg – 20 years – Community Diversity: Celebration of Collective Management and Artistic Empowerment

Join us on September 21st at Rotondes to celebrate the 20th anniversary of SACEM Luxembourg with a festive concert featuring local artists with eclectic styles.

Since its establishment in 2003, SACEM Luxembourg has played a crucial role in protecting the rights of authors, composers, and music publishers in Luxembourg. With nearly 1,800 members residing in the Grand Duchy, it represents a dynamic and diverse community that enriches the country's cultural life.

SACEM Luxembourg ensures transparent and fair management of copyright, allowing music creators to continue dreaming and inspiring the public. Through national and international collaborations, it generates millions of euros in copyright royalties each year, ensuring fair remuneration for artists.

By joining SACEM Luxembourg, Luxembourgish artists gain access to an international network of creators and receive recognition both locally and internationally. SACEM also facilitates access to musical repertoires from around the world, providing users with a rich and varied musical experience.

In the spirit of cooperation and celebration, we invite you to join us for our anniversary concert. Come and discover the diversity of Luxembourgish music and support music creators in their passion and contribution to our society.

Musical Program:

Love, Peace & Drugs by Gast Waltzing & Jean-Jacques Mailliet feat United Instruments of Lucilin

A new style, composed by Grammy winner Gast Waltzing and Jean Jacques Mailliet. Their social statement on the dumbing down of humankind because of the over stimulation of alarmist media and the deluge of speculative news. But hope lives on. Jazz is dead! Long live Jazz. This project aims to include musicians from the performance city or country, along with Waltzing and Mailliet and the electronic tracks. Musicians in the form of a string quartet, marimba, vibes and a bass clarinet from the performance city or country will join Waltzing and Mailliet in creating a performance of collaboration and cooperation, illustrating the possibilities of fighting against the spoon fed blown up news to which we are all subjected on a daily basis.

In collaboration with local hip hop record label De Läbbel, she created the 11-track album serving you a sweet mix of controversy, a blend of sarcasm topped with one teaspoon of De Läbbel influence! She worked together with various beatmakers from Luxembourg (i.e. 8Cee, Corbi, BTM, Nick Sauber, to name a few) to make this project as awesome as possible. Her live performance is like no other, whether you understand the Luxembourgish language or not, it is guaranteed that the crowd will vibe along with the beats and head-nod along with her flow and rhymes.
